

De Nederlandsche Bank
Econometrics and Modeling Department
Frederiksplein 61
Amsterdam, 1071 XL

s.h.p.wohrmuller@dnb.nl
swoehrmueller.com

Fields of interest: Macroeconomics, Heterogeneous Agent Models, Production Network Models

Employment

2025–	De Nederlandsche Bank, Econometrics and Modeling Department Senior Economist
2023–2024	De Nederlandsche Bank, Econometrics and Modeling Department Economist

Education

2024	Ph.D. in Economics, University of Amsterdam
2019	M.Phil. in Economics, Tinbergen Institute Amsterdam
2017 2015/2016	B.Sc. in Economics, Ludwig-Maximilian University Munich Erasmus Exchange, University of Warwick

Publications

-
1. “Inequality along the European green transition.” With Guido Ascari, Andrea Colciago, and Timo Haber.
Forthcoming at the Economic Journal, 2025

Working papers

-
1. “Carbon taxation and precautionary savings.” 2025.
 2. “What is the shape of Environmental Engel Curves? Evidence using panel data.” 2024.
 3. “Consumption insurance and credit shocks.” 2024.

Policy contributions

-
1. “Toekomst energie-intensieve industrie vergt Europese coördinatie.” With Andra Smadu, Guido Schotten, and Bas Heerma van Voss.
ESB, 110(4847), 2025
 2. “Competitiveness of the Dutch energy-intensive industry: energy prices, grid costs and ETS.” With Bas Heerma van Voss, Andra Smadu, Guido Schotten, and Laura Lehtonen.

